Cuisinart Professional Burr Coffee Mill. The Cuisinart Burr Mill evenly grinds fresh beans in seconds and with 18 grind settings you can select between fine and coarse results, suitable for all types of coffee makers from espresso machines to cafetières. This professional burr grinder presses the beans between its plates for an even grind, extracting maximum flavour without causing friction which can affect the taste of your coffee. With its cup quantity selector you can grind just what you need and all removable parts are dishwasher safe for easy cleaning. The machine is easy to use as it is fully automatic, simply fill the bean hopper with fresh coffee beans, select the coarseness and how many cups you require and press start. Machine is used but very clean and in great condition.;
