This is a really lovely vintage 1930s sideboard. Made of wood, this is a good quality, solid piece of furniture with 2 drawers at the top and one large cupboard space beneath with 2 panelled doors. There are lovely period features throughout, such as carved beading around the drawers, a carved back panel with inset mirror and barley twist legs. Mostly dark wood with top and back panel painted in black. Condition is good but there may be imperfections here and there as you would expect from a piece of this age. There is a bit of a crack on the top of the sideboard which I have tried to show in the one of the photos, this doesn't affect the function or the solidness of this cupboard. Please ask if you have any.
