As a new Human Givens psychotherapy graduate, I need to do some practice sessions to become a fully licensed practitioner. I am therefore able to offer FREE psychotherapy to a few individuals in return for a testimonial and the opportunity to record the session for learning/assessment purposes. If you have depression, anxiety, addictions, phobias, OCD or any other type of issue causing you mental distress and would like some help, let me know. This offer is very time limited. Once I am qualified in a few weeks, the treatment will cost £80 an hour. The Human Givens Approach to mental health is state of the art and proven, based on the latest neuroscience and backed up by scientific research.
