Help and direction offered with relationships, career & health issues. My name is Henry and I combine psychic ability with Christian mysticism in order to help people like you. Online text chat, email exchange or discreet online video chat/voice chat if you prefer. Totally private I don't need your real name, address etc. Payment via paypal required before booking, link sent to your email. On receiving interest in my services I will email pricing. I am very busy and my service has grown popular mainly via word of mouth recommendations. If you've paid and then missed your booking slot (chat & video chat customers), I will re-schedule appointment for free. For face to face video chat I wear a mask in order to help my mind focus totally on you the client. You can choose to wear a mask if you're very shy/nervous but it helps me to do my job if I can at least see your hair and eyes. My clients often require.....

- Analysis of personality, how you feel and perceive things and the common and rare results caused by acting on those feelings. Enhanced self awareness.
- hidden strengths and hidden weaknesses identified in order that you can work on reducing your weaknesses so that you will be more healthy and more happy
- Anger/Fear/Guilt and Dispair tackled head on in order to increase your peace.
- Understand that hope in the Lord Jesus Christ coming back and changing the reality we have now to one where evil no longer exists underpins my every word, yet my help is imperfect, so if you decide something I've said is not going to help you, move on, and analyse the things in my words that will. I say this as many of my clients come to me in a fragile condition and are vulnerable, i'm here to help, if you decide something I've said hasn't/isn't helping its important you then feel free to ignore me.
- Loneliness, are you lonely? Chat with someone friendly and concerned about you.
- Help for 'nervous breakdown' sufferers (i.e. shaking, nightmares, sweating, loss of balance)
- Help with parental relationships and advice on helping siblings bond better
- Intuition

and 'gut feelings' examined. Difficult internal conflicts gently handled. Upon specific request powerful messages delivered to, and ensure you are listening when you are very tired. Lines 5:1-5:11. The righteous are powerful. Do not give up. "I will be with you in every step of the way, 'Hallelujah' and your name is written in the book of life."
