I have been investing in property since the age of 19 and i am now in my 30's, I am at a crossroad with my investment portfolio and I am looking to take on some partners to help me expand things in the best way possible. If you have money sat in a savings account, making maybe 1% why not invest in some property and make 8-10% if not more? We can flip properties and make a short term gain, we can buy buy to let, I have many options available to anybody who is interested. Serious enquires to click to contact website is <http://www.bwpropertyinvestments.co.uk> ;
