..Do you have a vintage Blaupunkt Barcelona 104 A car radio/cassette model (as pictured), which is just sitting around in a box somewhere and generally not being used now. Hopefully it will still be working, but even if you think it may only be good for spares, I would be interested. Must be in a good to excellent all-round state. Either way, it's your chance to make some extra cash. Amount shown is the max for a working example only. Please telephone in confidence. Private buyer. Thanks.;
