Removed from a Victorian Terrace Cast Iron Fireplace with grate suitable for open fire (or gas module can be put in, we have removed but seen in photos) and Mahogany Mantle. I am not sure how old these are though. All in good to very good condition. The mantle has some damage to it where it has been scratched by items on it and also from hot mugs been placed on it. All of which I suspect can be easily repaired. Dimensions are roughly as follows (I measured it while in place):

width across mantle ~188cm width across bottom ~176cm height ~147cm £550 for both or open to offers. Can be sold separately. This is heavy and will be up to buyer to arrange collection, I am afraid I cannot deliver. Whitley
