Do you have a 1960s Omega Constellation gents wristwatch (as shown in the images), which is gathering dust, or just sitting in a drawer doing nothing - and you'd like to sell and get some extra cash for your vintage watch? Depending on the condition, which must be good-excellent, then I would be interested. Please be advised that as from December 2015, Omega will not send/supply vintage watch parts to any independent specialist watch repair outlets/ establishments any more. This is worth thinking about, as a full service would now cost a minimum of £400, excluding any parts required, and VAT, from Omega themselves! I am NOT a dealer, and this is a completely genuine private buyer request to buy in cash, so please call in confidence.;
