South Malling Pre-School based at Malling Community Centre, Lewes, is a not for profit charity established in 1969, providing term time childcare for all children aged between 2-5 years, funded spaces for 2/3/4 year olds available to book now. We also offer an hourly service, your pre school aged child can be cared for by our trained staff in the pre-school setting whilst you get the shopping/housework done or attend an appointment/meeting, whatever you need time for, no need to book regular sessions. Only pay for the time you need. Just register your child with us and let us know when and how long you need us for and we will let you know if the space is available. Find out more
