Here i am selling my Renault Megane 1.6 Dynamique.

Ive this car just over 2 years, it honestly has been a good car to me! Im actually gutted im getting rid of my car!! The car has tinted windows and alloys which i payed to have done, these weren't originally on the car when i brought it! Right, the stuff you need to know! It has MOT till Nov 2017, tax, as you know has to be taken off.

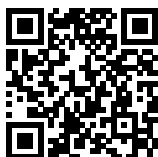

I have just had a brand new exhaust put on this motor, cost me £250, i have got the receipt, it also has 2 years guarantee..

It has had the bracket done under the gearbox this cost £80 and also brand new exhaust brackets.

4 tyres put on (part worn) these were put on just over a month ago. This cost just over £80. It has done 128,000 on the clock, but has been very looked after, dont let this put you off! On the pictures you can see their is paint peel on the front bumper, this was their when i brought the car, this is the only thing that spoils the car, but with it being black, you can hardly see it. I was originally going to buy a new bumper. Also the handbrake needs replacing, this i am going to do, depending on if the car sells before i can do it or not, this only happened last week! Simple job, £20 from scrap yard, £30 fitting! Job done!! Also the car needs a indicator light bulb replacing, i already have this i just dont have the time to replace it as you have to take the bumper off!! Apart from those MINOR things, the car is sound, runs fine, i have no problems with it, i use it everyday still. No time wasters or Tyre kickers, genuine buyers only please!

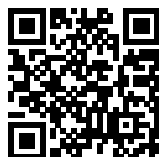

Female owner of this car, so the car isnt knocked about! It is well looked after! I have been as honest as i can be! THE TIDYIST MEGANE YOU WILL SEE!! GUARANTEED!! I have MANY people comment on my car, i dont know why lol. I want around £950 for this car. No silly offers, i also want a quick sale due to wanting another car now as i need a 1.4 =]
