Brand new with box and carrier bag. Description from the David Linley website, where it sells for £550: "One for the men, the Gentleman's Cufflink Box has been handcrafted in solid walnut on blue eucalyptus with a polka dot, bowler hat and bow tie design in satinwood inlay. The box is lined with faux suede and includes a silver LINLEY London plaque. Would make the ideal luxury gift for any man." This is an unwanted gift. It's a quality, beautifully handcrafted box, but we already have too much 'stuff' and we really don't have room for any more! The price (a discount of £150 on the David Linley website price) includes postage. Payment by cheque (must clear before posting/collection), paypal or cash on collection. Only opened in order to take.
