14.2hh Skewbald Full Cob Mare with soft personality looking for a 5 star home (very sad sale)! Would suit someone who is willing to further and progress and education! I have had Dakota for 2 years and she has progressed so well, she has a wonderful personality and aims to achieve whatever is being taught, she is very fit and sound and has had professional riding lessons throughout the months that I have had her with an instructor. 3 lovely paces (walk, trot and canter) aims to please at all times, and is never spooky or strong, ready to start her jumping education and has started to trot over a series of poles. Currently lives out 24/7 but is great when staying in too. Hacks alone or in company, good with traffic, lunging, leading in hand, clipping, farrier, vet, loading, at events and with dogs/children. Up to date with; Worming, vaccinations, microchipped and has updated passport. Events: 1st place in hand (prettiest mare 2016), 5th place (Cob Ridden 2016) and has recently competed in her first dressage series (December 2016) Sold with: Tack (Bridle + Saddle) Recently brought weatherbeeta lightweight 100g turnout rug, and head collar! Transport Available at extra cost Recently purchased rugs available at extra cost.

Reason for selling: Lack of time due to work.
