This console was bought on 21/09/2016 as my launch PS4 died and I needed an interim console until the pro came out. I got my pro last month and this is for sale now. Cash on collection, no delivery and no swapping. First that shows up with the cash can take it, I won't be holding it. It comes with all the standard parts including controller. I have the original invoice from Amazon which will be provided for warranty.
