

Two guitars (one acoustic, one electric) and a Roland Micro Cube for sale. (50 GBP)

I have for sale here (selling them all together ideally as one job lot) an acoustic Guitar made by "Chantry" and the electric guitar made by "Elevation" as well as a Roland Micro Cube Amp.

Both guitars are in good condition. The acoustic guitar is missing a guitar peg (as pictured) but this could be easily replaced at an instrument shop and can still be tuned easily without this peg just using pliers or similar etc. (this is what I did). The electric guitar is literally barely used. I have a floor stand for the acoustic guitar and carry case for the electric one with a pack of spare strings and all the cables etc. Also throwing in a Dean Markley digital tuner which is helpful when tuning the guitars (especially for a beginner). If you're looking to get into guitars this really is everything you need. I bought all this equipment with the best intentions and then only had a few lessons so would be very happy to sell them to someone who is going to get a lot more use out of them.

The Roland Mirco cube amp alone retailed for £115 new and if you type in "roland micro cube" here on Gumtree the same one (and very similar ones) are selling for around £80 for just the amp alone!

I am lowering the price of this listing for the two guitars and the amp for just £50 so an absolute bargain. (also includes carry case, stand and digital tuner etc. as detailed above) Quick sale needed as moving house end of January.

For collection by the buyer ideally (I'm based in Redhill, Surrey) or could arrange local delivery (within a few miles of Redhill) for an additional charge of £10 if necessary (as I don't drive so would involve getting someone to take me to the house and back for me).

Please feel free to drop me an email if you have any questions.

Many thanks
