Set on a corner plot in a quiet village just minutes from Jarnac, this traditional Charentaise house offers plenty of traditional features. Spacious accommodation with lovely gardens, pool and studio. This property can be found in a pretty, quite village, just a few minutes drive from the historic market town of Jarnac. 10 mins from the golf course. Set on a corner plot with entrance from front or side. The side entrance opens onto a graveled driveway with parking for several cars. You can then drive onto the GARAGE, (34,22 m²), to the right. Access to the property. To the left is a POOL HOUSE, (13,86 m²), and a STUDIO, ground floor with large OPEN PLAN ROOM, (28 m²), with SHOWER ROOM, (5,36 m²), MEZZANINE, (36 m²), with sky light. To your right, made private by natural landscaping, is a further garden and the POOL, (10 x 6 m²). Straight on from here, or accessible from the front entrance is the property. Accessed through large double gates. A charming, large walled garden with covered terrace, BBQ and well. As is the style with traditional Charaitaise houses, you only have windows to the front of the house, all of which are DOUBLE GLAZED. You can choose to use the double doors into the KITCHEN, (11 m²), with fitted units, large fridge freezer, range cooker and dish washer. Tiled floors and beamed ceilings. From here you can access the garage, or use the CORRIDOR, (5,53 m²), to access a LAUNDRY ROOM, (7,54 m²), with sink. PANTRY, (1,27 m²) and W.C. You can also access, to the left of the kitchen the DINING ROOM, (30 m²), with tiled floor, beamed ceiling and feature FIREPLACE. This room can also be accessed from the garden, by a single, double glazed door. Where, in front of you, you will see the, open plan, traditional, stair case. To the right of you is the LOUNGE, (25 m²). Right from there is access into the STUDIO, (36 m²), ideal for a workroom or show room, as it is also accessible from its own, separate, entrance way, through double, glazed, doors. The first floor opens up on to a large and light HALLWAY, (20 m²), off of which you will find a FAMILY BATHROOM, (7,56 m²), TWO bedrooms, DROCK and 14 m² with beamed ceilings and light wood paneling. Access to the MEZZANINE, (36 m²), with stunning views of the CHARENTAIS. COMM. 500 M. Close to the historical town of Jarnac, with its old, pebble streets, covered market and a large garden. The famous stone houses of the town, Jarnac, and afford a unique view not associated with rural France. The river Charente runs through the town, where you can take a walk, hire a boat or take a boat ride or one overlooking the river in one of the various restaurants catering for all tastes. It has a stunning square with bars and restaurants, dating back to the time of Francois the 1st. The public gardens, with amphitheater and mini-zoo, hosts the world famous "Blues Passions". During late June to early July when concerts are performed for free, in the streets, and for playing in the public garden. There is a ring road, around the town, preserving its history and ambience. From this road you can access the out of town shopping areas. Jarnac is another superb town, again with history, covered
