The Food Safety Level 2 course will give food handlers the legally required certification to work in the catering sector. It is aimed at anyone who handles food in the catering or hospitality industry – including restaurants, hotels, bars, takeaways, kitchens, hospitals and schools. The course covers the essential aspects of food hygiene and safety during all stages of food handling, so that you can minimise food safety hazards and ensure that the food you work with remains safe for customers to eat. You will also learn about the legal responsibilities of working with food and how to comply with the law. Course Content Introduction to food safety Personal hygiene Food safety hazards and their control Food handling, storage and preparation Keeping the workplace clean and hygienic Design of food premises and the control of pests Multiple choice quiz Format The course is presented as a slide show and the content is broken down into simple sections. At the end of each part there are some multiple-choice questions that allow you to test your knowledge before moving on to a new section. Upon completing the course you will need to take the Quiz, which consists of 30 multiple-choice questions. You will need to get a minimum of 21 questions right to pass the course and receive your certificate, which you will be able to download immediately in pdf format. Should you fail the quiz you can redo the course as many times as necessary. Duration and Time Limit The course takes approximately 2 – 3 hours to complete, although there is no time limit and you can do it in your own time and in stages. Certificate After passing the course you can immediately download your pdf certificate, which is fully accredited by the CPD. The certificate will allow you to work with food anywhere in the.
