How to put the 'Story' into History with Joanna Courtney

A lively and informative workshop looking at key elements of historical fiction to help budding writers with the alchemy of turning their hard-researched facts into golden fiction.

Run by local historical novelist Joanna Courtney, this workshop will be packed with tips, information, practical advice and, above all, writing exercises. Covering: Plot: turning timelines into plotlines; Character: creating of-their-time heroes and heroines with believable voices and Setting: establishing a natural, vivid environment. Joanna can't guarantee you the next historical hit, but she can definitely start you on the right road... Course fee: £8
