Professional certified 22-year music instructor with 38 years playing and singing experience available to teach guitar, mandolin or give voice lessons. I play in bands both in Belfast and Dublin which make your lessons top drawer. Students grow in confidence and motivation with their music when their instructor is out playing themselves. We breakdown every obstacle to overcome any challenge standing between you and your goal. No matter your age or experience, the only thing that counts is the musical desire to play an instrument or sing. The lessons provide both practical and theory knowledge of music. You choose how much you want of each. If you are new to playing an instrument or singing, I can help you to design your goals. If you already have experience, I can help to guide and improve your playing or singing to the level you want. If you want to write your own songs we can work together to craft your style. Feel free bring your own songs that you want to learn and we'll work on them. I provide all the song sheets, musical notation and books at no extra charge! It's simply £15 per each hour lesson. There is a discount if you buy a block of 4 or 10, just ask. A Christmas or holiday voucher is also available for your loved one. Each lesson is tailored to yourself, your family member or your group. I train both on the evenings and on the weekends. Ring up and ask any questions about the your lessons or how I can help. No more insecurity, no more doubt, start today with a proven teacher of over 37 years of music quality. -I look forward to working with you or your family member on their musical dreams- Look for our service on Matchetts Music in Belfast under Mixed Instruments.

We operate under a 'Safe Environment' code of conduct for those in lessons under age 18.
