2017 Luxury Willerby Brockenhurst available at Coopers Beach As you enter the Brockenhurst you get a real sense of a contemporary home with luxurious finishes and tasteful upholstery. It's definitely the home for you if you like cool, calm colours with lots of added extras as standard. The spacious lounge has two comfy sofas with acres of light cascading in through the large windows or optional French doors. Scatter cushions are included and really complement the colour scheme while high backed chairs in the dining area add that extra touch of elegance. Lots of room means it's a perfect home for entertaining but what makes it great is all the extra handy storage carried through from the kitchen into the lounge, just adding to that sense of cool sophistication. You'll love the defined lounge and dining kitchen area. The U-shaped oak effect and cream kitchen includes an integrated microwave, fridge-freezer and extractor hood next to a freestanding dining table, affording wonderful views outside. The master bedroom is roomy, with lots of over-bed storage and plentiful wardrobes and drawers. Pop on one of the bedside lights and lean against the padded headboard for great nights in on your holidays.
