The new 2017 Willerby Pinehurst now available @ Coopers Beach Holiday Park With a new layout for 2017, the Pinehurst with its imposing exterior presence, is the contemporary holiday home you've always dreamed of. You enter the Pinehurst via your own generous hallway/ utility room where you can take a pew, pop your shoes off, and then, if the kids are drenched from jumping in the sea or those muddy puddles on your walk, put their clothes straight into your optional washing machine. The lounge oozes style and the feature fireplace instantly makes an impression, providing a tranquil environment as you sink into the plush sofas. With space, storage and a contemporary layout with a difference, the Pinehurst truly has the family in mind. The open plan kitchen and living space provides plenty of room for all your cooking essentials and family needs. Once you've made your coffee in the morning you can sit and chat over the huge kitchen island that can also double up as workspace or walk through your large patio doors and enjoy the outside tranquillity. Don't worry about taking too many clothes on your next trip. The master bedroom benefits from its own walk-in wardrobe and en-suite so there is plenty of space for everything you need. It's plush fabrics, designer touches and sense of luxury ensure you'll be the envy of all your friends. New lodge development available soon with limited spaces left.
