Hey, I am a 22-year-old female offering babysitting for ages 4+ in the Dundee City area. I am currently in my final year at university, but I am wanting to change my future career path; I am considering becoming a nanny, but before making the switch I wish to gain as much experience with children as possible. Thus, I am offering affordable rates as it's a case of experience over money. I haven't babysat in a while, but I do have a recent DBS certificate, work experience in an infant/junior school and if required can supply character references. So, if you need a sitter or any further information just reply to this ad or text me on 07446801782 074468017...(click to reveal full phone number) and I'll call you back.
