Myself and my boyfriend are looking for a small house/flat to rent. We both have jobs working at Gatwick airport so a place close to the airport would be ideal. The tenancy on my partners house share is at the end on February so that will round about the time we would like to move in. We also have a springer spaniel who is very well behaved when home alone and does not ruin things inside the house so somewhere with garden access and somewhere to park 2 cars would be fantastic. We would like to pay in the region of £700 a.
