ASBESTOS ROOF removal or complete ASBESTOS garage removal services provided by Elite Group Essex. Before ASBESTOS became hazardous to health, it was used on many buildings throughout the UK .

Up until the 1980's most garages outhouses, and some buildings may have only had it on the roof, but some had ASBESTOS wall panels, guttering and down pipes. All ASBESTOS cement removal contracts will comply to all laws and regulations, regarding the disposal and removal of such materials. The ASBESTOS should never be broken or drilled, so eliminating all risks to the public. All ASBESTOS cement panels are wrapped in plastic and removed off site, by one of our licensed waste vehicles to a specific ASBESTOS waste centre, for which you will be given full documentation .
