Tired of removal companies which make up the prices as they go along? Tired of van drivers showing up late, and being very unprofessional?

We want to revolutionise the man-and-van service. Making it young, vibrant, flexible and instantaneous. This is how we are doing it:

- * Responsiveness: A van within an hour. We have Professional drivers all over London.
- * Flexibility: You can get something either within an hour instantly or at any scheduled time - 24/7.
- * Customer Support: We have a dedicated customer support team on hand to make the process as smooth as possible
- * Competitive Pricing: The price is consistent all day, all week (even on a Sunday).
- * Professionalism: All our drivers must attend our academy where we train them in the values that we stand by.
