

2000 year Fiat Ducato Diesel in very good condition having covered only 33.400 miles. It has MOT until August and had no advisories.

It does not leak and there is no damp at all, it has been fully resealed by a dealership. It is the 2.8l diesel engine which is powerful and has a very long 5th gear so it dies surprisingly well on fuel. It is in very good condition inside and out. The interior has been fully re-upholstered with removable washable covers. It has had brand new high quality carpets made. The carpets are removable and there is a wood effect lino floor underneath. The bathroom has had a new carpet as well.
