 £400 ONO* NEED GONE ASAP! I have been the owner of this car for nearly 2 years and only 1 previous owner before me, I have all the documents that come with vehicle, it has full service history and mot not long passed so isn't due again until November 2017, i also have spare key and it comes with a cd player. it has a few wear and tear things wrong with it, but all very easy and cheap to fix, the door handle has broken off on passenger side but I still have the handle so just needs placing back on but can open from the inside still, there are a few dents in vehicle and scratches and have had problems with the electric windows going up and down aswell as the heating being tempemental. All of these things are easily fixed the engine runs perfect and I have recently had new tyres put on aswell as a brand new radiator. I would honestly been keeping this car as it is perfect and very reliable but have purchased a new car so i need this car to be gone by this weekend hence the price PLEASE CONTACT ME IF YOU ARE INTERESTED 07474295543 074742955...(click to reveal full phone)
