We have for sale my BMW e36 convertible, this car was going to be a little TLC project as engine and box are fine and body of car is pretty solid for a BMW of this age, mileage is 115k which is nothing for a BMW 2.0l straight 6, car runs, drives and stops as it should and has MOT until end March 17 with only advisory being a tyre that has been done, as I said car needs some TLC the window in roof needs replacing as it has few cracks, driver's seat could do with replacing as it has torn and been restitched, for more info please call number provided
