We are bringing our Spirit Of The Andes alpaca knitwear, pima cotton and accessories to Amersham! Come and meet us for a coffee and a chat. Since rescuing Spirit Of The Andes in 2015, our customers frequently ask if we will reopen a shop near them. Our stunning catalogue and website photos, beautiful as they are, just don't do justice to the quality and feel of our lovely alpaca and pima cotton garments.

So the good news is... we're now bringing our garments to you to remind you of their feel and their quality.

We're heading out on the road and setting up shop in locations close to where our shops are sorely missed. We want to reconnect with you, gather your ideas for the future and give you the opportunity of purchasing some beautiful clothing.

And what's more it's SALE time and there are wonderful bargains available - not only from our current catalogue but also garments from past collections, most of which will be discounted by 50% and some even up to%!
