Hexagon Construction Services.

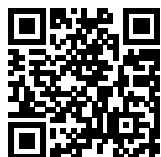

We would like to offer our construction services, we can do extension of your house, garage and any other type of building. We are able to perform this of brick, wood and even steel. We have a design office, where qualified staff will prepare an individual project, according to the customer idea or advise in the event of doubt. At the end, our team will do everything on construction site. If you need additional space in the building, please contact us, we will discuss the range of work and prepare a personalized offer.

We are a Polish company specializing in the production of complete steel buildings (for industry, sports, trade, agriculture, services), years of experience and market demand has enabled us to expand our business to additional services (see our other).
