This is an excellent villa situated in 1000 m from the Adriatic Sea. It was completely reconstructed in 2015. The villa includes a landscaped courtyard of 890 m2 with a smooth green lawn, and a terrace paved with white tiles, a pool and a summer kitchen with an area to prepare barbecue. The house area is 200 m2. There is 1 terrace on the first floor for outdoor recreation and 2 terraces on the second floor; 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms allow a family of 3-6 people to comfortably accommodate here. The villa's interior is submitted in a form of designer's repair; completely new furniture and domestic appliances are installed in the house. A full range of security – cameras inside and outside the house and motion sensors – is installed here as well. The villa has a central air conditioning winter-summer and a heating system with temperature regulators. A large internal space is perfectly lighted from windows both in the hall and in the bedroom. It is perfect choice for own residence or renting. 690 000 € +7(987)58-34-244 Poreč, Croatia ;
