Hi, my name is Ellie, I'm looking for fellow amateur musicians for a jam. Nothing serious, mostly messing around with music. I'm open to any area of music but generally start easy with some soft rock (sublime, foos, no doubt) to get to know each other, but any suggestions welcome. I was raised on blues and soul and believe music is vital to any persons well being. I have always sang for fun, I don't want to be pro but I also don't want to loose my voice. If you play in instrument get in.
