With great regret we need to sell our 3 year old king Charles boy. He hasn't been spayed he can only be in a home as the only pet. He has decided after 3 years he doesn't like our older dogs and gets distressed by them being around him. There for he must go to a home as the only dog in the home. He is great with children and house trained. He walks well on his lead and loves his toys. I want to sell him to a family only and no one under the age of 25. He's been fleas wormed and up to date with all vaccines. Please only serious people. I will refuse sale if I don't feel you are the right person for Alfie. He's very special to us and we only want a really good loving.
