A Collection of Oundle Families, tells of their journey through the census years. Many had lived in Oundle since the 18th century and some even before. Several stories are individualised with newspaper reports which show the ups and downs in their lives. Also included is a section telling of the experiences from Oundle soldiers and a light-hearted section of fascinating snippets from the newspapers linked to the people of Oundle. A great reference source for family historians. Part of the proceeds of the sale of each book to be donated to Volunteer Action Oundle and Sue Ryder Thorpe Hall Hospice Peterborough. Book cost £10.99 Postage and packing £1.71 Cheque, BACS details given on request or cash on collecting. Contact Margaret Brewster (Author) click to
