FANTASTIC OPPORTUNITY! Your own inventory business without the big upfront costs! We are offering our first 5 partners an opportunity to come on board with us , saving you £15-£25K on normal franchise start costs. Not only will you benefit from being able to start your own business with no huge start-up costs, you will have exclusivity over your chosen geographical area of work. Come on board with us now, grow with us and share our profit success. Video inventory services is an established inventory company, carrying out property inspection reports for letting agents and landlords within the Greater Manchester and surrounding areas. Following the successful launch of our video inventory app we are now looking for growth partners to help take the company to the next level and expand the business to other geographical areas of the UK. Your role as a video inventory services partner is to build your own client base under the video inventory services brand using tried and tested sales & marketing methods with continuous support and training from our headquarters. Have you got what it takes? Are you a good communicator, organised and self-motivated with a keen eye for detail? Are you fluent in spoken and written English? Do you have a can do attitude? Do you have a strong interest in property? Are you someone who is willing to listen, learn and do? Can you work on your own? Do you have a valid driving licence and own vehicle? Are you able to think on your feet and resolve challenging situations? Are you committed to growing and sustaining a business? What do you get? Flexible working – you work how many days/hours you want. Price your own clients Earning potential – paid per report, (average report can bring £70- £180 depending on geographical location and size of property) realistic reports per day 3-4 depending on experience. Potential of earning more if you recruit your own clerks. Paid per job on a self-employed basis. Starter pack with Tablet, pre-loaded with the Viderty inventory software free to use. Website, email, data storage, marketing literature, business cards, training, sales & marketing support. Continuous support & training provided. All aspects of your business covered without any extra costs. (For our first 5 fruits of £750 start cost only for the first 6 months) If you are property sales experienced and can answer all the above questions, we want to hear from you. Apply with your CV and cover letter to info@videoinventoryservices.co.uk why you should consider our opportunity: Andrew Eccleston click to contact  Due to the number of applications, if you do not heard back from us within 1 week of applying, please presume you have been ***
