I have a little bit of 125 cc there is a crack in the front fender but a few screws are missing. It's not too bad. It's perfect for the price. There are no scratches. The right side panel is missing. The back brake is still working. The front brake is broken. It has a new seat. The clutch works fine. Needs a new back tire which are cheap ie 20.82p. Last thing is the key fob broke but I have got a new one but in but is a diff key to the back seat and have got the key for it or if you would like to fit the new back lock on I have got it so you can do website is called <http://www.lexmoto.co.uk/> in which you can get all your parts from anymore questions feel free to ask
