Hola!!

I am Nuria from Spain and I am a qualified Spanish and Music teacher (QTS) in London, and Anthropologist.

I have more than two years of experience teaching Spanish in London, working as freelance and for some languages companies.

During the last years, I have developed my teaching skills in different education fields in Spain. I have experience teaching children and adults, both in Schools and in private lessons.

I am flexible to the students' needs and open to all ages and levels: primary, GSCE, A-Levels, University studies, DELE examinations, Hispanic culture....

I prepare specific material for each student depending on the knowledge, the goals or their personal interests. On the other hand, if you want just improve your speaking we can work it through conversations about articles, news or other materials of your interest.

I can arrange one to one session or in small groups in Central and West London, within 1-3 zones, during mornings, afternoons and evenings. It is also possible to have the lessons at your job place during
