Being a resident of the United Kingdom, you are likely a customer of Scottish Power which is a business enterprise supplying Power and Gas Services throughout the UK. It is considered to be the 6th largest power provider within the UK. This means that the Scottish Power phone number can be hard to get through to if you want them in a hurry because the organization has thousands of clients and that is why their phone number tends to be continually busy. One of the best ways in which to connect to this company then is through the Phone Menus website. ;
