This 2 Bed Delta Nordstar will sleep up to 4 people. It is a modern, comfortable double glazed holiday home. It has everything you need for that home from home feel and offers superb accommodation at affordable prices. One bedroom has a double bed with wardrobe and dressing table. The other has 2 single beds which can be pushed together to make an additional double. The lounge has a gas fire, colour television and coffee table. It is also fitted with comfortable seating finished in beige and terracotta, with scatter cushions, making it the perfect place to relax. The kitchen is fully equipped with cooker, fridge/freezer, microwave and toaster. The bathroom has a shower, wash basin and toilet. Prices include all gas, electric, duvets, pillows and blankets, you only have to bring your own bed linen. There is an enclosed garden, private parking and FREE Wifi but please be advised that this caravan is Strictly No Smoking and No Pets. Brightholme Holiday Park is a family friendly park situated in the heart of Brean on the seaward side of the coastal road, with private access to 7 miles of sandy beaches. On site is Breakers Bar, where you can relax in the evenings and there is live entertainment four times a week in high season. There is a large restaurant serving a full menu with locally sourced, home made food. It also offers bar meals, take-aways and a Sunday Carvery. (See Trip Advisor for fabulous reviews). There is a children's play area and also a special children's room equipped with video machines and games. Within easy walking distance of the Park there are many shops catering for all your holiday needs, a Post Office and a large leisure park, where a golf course, swimming pool, ten-pin bowling and amusements are among the attractions. There are also many other restaurants, takeaways, public houses and amusements. Markets and car boots are held on a regular basis at the leisure centre. There is a bus stop outside the Park where you can catch a bus to Weston (10 mins) and Bishop Cleeve (15 mins) further along the route at Bishop Cleeve. There is a tropical bird garden and at the top of the Down (which belongs to the National Trust) there are magnificent views of the Forest of Soudley, the Cotswold Waterline and the Mendip Hills. There are numerous points of interest to visit. Masey Hole, St Andrew's Cathedral, the town of Torr, the village of Little, the village of Axbridge and Longleat Animal Fun Adventure Park are all within driving distance. Bristol is also about three quarters of an hours drive.
