

At www.penguininstrumentors.com you can now book your music lessons online, today! Any age, any level, and straight to your door. You can choose from an orchestra of instruments including piano, drums, guitar, flute, bass, clarinet, saxophone, trumpet, violin, viola, french horn, trombone, harp and many more. We currently have bases in London, Cardiff, Manchester and Birmingham with more locations to be added soon. With our ever-increasing numbers of Instrumentors we'll always help you find the instrument you're looking for. You'll find more than just lessons when you book at www.penguininstrumentors.com. We host a vast array of benefits for you to take advantage of including: Hassle free lessons you can book online! Find your lessons through our intuitive booking system and book instantly, real-time, 24/7. An online store you can buy an exclusive Starter Pack for all of your musical needs! This pack includes a great clip-on digital metronome/tuner, a child-friendly hand exerciser and the all-important Music Lessons Survival Book to help parents and pupil alike navigate their first journey into realm of music lessons! We also include a Penguin Instrumentors tote and our very own invention, the Practice Planner, which includes useful sticky notes as our way of thanks! You can find us nationwide. We have bases in London, Manchester, Birmingham and Cardiff and are currently branching out into many more locations!

1-on-1 individually tailored lessons, whether you're interested in the Grades or you're looking for something more casual, your Instrumentor will craft their lessons specifically to your interests. Never miss a lesson! With our ever increasing numbers we'll do our darnedest to rearrange and rebook lessons for you and with our secure pupil progression transferal system, you can take a week with another Instrumentor and never miss a note! Our weekly InstruStars! A little more recognition for those who earned it. With Twitter shoutouts and a featured space on our website we'll make sure all that hard work is rewarded. Charitable donations for our pupils and instruments can perform in a very small amount of time. We raise funds for the local community, for the future and for us. All of our instrument holders have a unique t-shirt and a more-empowered screening and identification with their Personal Identification Numbers t-shirt and bags! Let us know what you think. We want to tell us what you thought. Taking your feedback onboard is a vital part in making sure you receive the best experience possible. Extra support could be given. It could be a school music exam or it could just be a particularly challenging piece. We work with you and your instrumentor to ensure you get the best preparation and tuition. Constant updates with tips and advice. This includes our blog which includes specific instrument information tips for practice the benefits of learning an instrument and much more! Associations with top musical establishments around the county. We aren't kidding when we say our Instrumentors consist of the best! Our biggest priority, of course, is our pupils! So join us today and find

Book Your Music Lessons
Online Today Piano, Guitar, Singing, Violin, Amp More
Teachers Nationwide
See much more!
Pay our way and find

