Since 2016 changed its name to Occitanie. Until late into September, you can still enjoy very pleasant temperatures here. – The area is stunningly beautiful and is characterized by its diverse nature, with valleys full of fruit trees, vineyards, tropical plants and trees. There are limestone plateaus with deep gorges and caves, carved by the many rivers that flow through Lot. Nice, cozy, medieval villages and towns with rich cultural heritage are made lively by the many (night) markets, flea markets and festivities.
