Dr. Yoho's surgical center in Pasadena hosts a full-service medical spa in the privacy and professional environment of his well-appointed office. These "spa" procedures are designed for people who can't afford time off for surgery. The spa is carefully supervised by Dr. Yoho, with treatments performed by physician's assistants who are fully qualified by their advanced training and licensed by the state of California. No registered nurses are used. This is a boutique practice, so you won't be pushed out of the waiting room by a line of people. And we perform only prescription treatments not available in an ordinary spa. Find more information: dryoho
