At the beginning of this year I made a decision to expand my profession, which I have given over 10 years of service to, from just being a Personal Assistant to being a Virtual Assistant too. A Virtual Assistant, otherwise known as a VA, will help business owners who don't have the time to manage their administrative processes or don't have the financial resources to hire somebody in-house. A VA is a remote-working, reliable professional who can keep things running smoothly even in the most fast-paced businesses. My decade of work in providing Personal and Executive Assistance allows me to accommodate with ease, all of your needs and requirements. From diary management and project management through to IT skills and PR/ Media Handling; I am equipped with the acumen and experience to be your Virtual Assistant. Your focus should be running the business and not running around in the business. Having a Virtual Assistant at your side will offload stress, improve your organisation and increase your productivity. Your time is valuable and volatile, this is why it is so important for your Virtual Assistant to operate with ultra flexibility to suit your needs and ever-evolving schedule. Choosing V2H Business Solutions marks the end of your administrative and time-keeping problems. It signals the beginning of you as a leader, who can focus on what's really important and leaving the rest to your trusty Virtual Assistant.
