Is my deposit protected?

If you are unsure whether your deposit was registered with an appropriate deposit protection scheme, chances are, your deposit was not protected.

Under the Housing Act 2004, when a tenant pays a deposit to rent a property then the landlord must lodge that tenancy deposit with one of three government deposit schemes within 30 days of the deposit being paid.

Holiday Sickness

Suffering an injury or getting sick while away with family and friends can ruin a holiday.

If you've had an accident or become ill on holiday because of somebody else's actions, whether that be the manager of the hotel you were staying at or your tour operator, you may be able to claim holiday accident.
