SAP FI CO - the greatest configuration for internal as well as external accounting processes; describes FI (Financial Accounting) plus CO (Controlling). It is a significant core module of ERP processes, wherein real-time financial transactions are combined with various equal SAP modules for excellent outcomes. SAP FICO training is available in three different manners of approaches. Many people often opt for the training where they are being prepared in the conventional classrooms. Additionally to this form, there are learners who believe online training of SAP FICO simply defeats the classroom one with respect to effectiveness. Vintage IT Solutions provides SAP Online training with certifications in London and worldwide. It includes SAP courses, SAP online training with certifications and server access facility for all SAP modules including SAP FICO Online training. This course includes Financial Accounting Basic Settings, Accounts Payable, Accounts receivable, Asset Accounting and Reports. Visit us for SAP course duration and fees details.
