 QUAD, Market Place, Derby, DE1 3AS
 Thursday 11th May, 7pm-9pm

Bestselling local author Jane Linfoot will be delivering a workshop session on romance writing, share her own experiences as she learned to write in the field, chat about the publishing opportunities in this very popular genre and highlight the commercial hotspots you might target.

With a mix of discussion and shared workshop exercises, you'll discover ways to create characters that readers will enjoy and how to develop a storyline the market will love. You'll also learn a way to make a confident start on your own novel if you're just beginning, and gain tips on how to strengthen your work if you've already begun.
