Hi yes, when we arrived everything was clean and tidy, clean sheets were on the beds and we did have a complimentary bottle of wine. We put the keys into no6 box top row. We also left the apartment the same as we found it. The shower faucet was broken but we left it on the side of the bath for repair, we did try and repair it but we didn't want to fiddle too much incase we caused more damage. We also replaced the broken chair on the balcony and unfortunately the flowers were already dead. Thank you for helping us have a fantastic holidays.
