START YOUR PROJECT NOW ! PAIR of Roxite 94 Caravan windows very suitable for campervan conversion. They are from the 1998 Eccles Diamond pictured and are the rectangular one you see in the van pic (side wall) together with its opposite number from the other side. The four other pics are inside and outside of the two windows. They are in very good condition, I have used the smaller ones from the caravan in my conversion and they look very smart. This pair are each (measured across the back of the window) 1155mm wide x 608mm deep, grey smoke with speckled edge pattern. the underlying hole to cut in the van would be 1095mm wide x 550mm deep and I can supply the template for cutting. The hinge bars (the bit that screws to the van for the window to slide into) will be supplied, however other fittings are not, but they are readily available on ebay. I have put these up as the pair as it would be a shame for them to be separated and not used as described, however if I get two Eccles Diamond or poss. other Sterling type caravan owners wanting one each I will consider split. I would very much prefer cash / collection however if asolutely necessary I could arrange delivery, at your.
