Samsung 65 inch Smart TV, High Definition 4K. UHD Crystal Colour. Natural and lifelike pictures. The latest screen technology delivering enhanced pixels and chip set for a superior picture quality experience and true to life colours. Has been used for less then a year. Works perfectly well, however, there's a slight damage on the right side of the screen. (Please view pictures) A scratch of which effects (only) that side of the screen. With the TV being so huge it's less of a distraction when viewing. Selling due to long term travelling. (Viewers welcome before buying). Price at £750 Willing to negotiate if price is acceptable. Thank.
