TEFL Tutoring Advertisement. Hello! I am 25 years old, a graduate in Digital Media Design, and work as in a photography lab. I also write, run an online magazine, and am always surrounded by other creative forms of work. I am TEFL qualified with an A on the Masters course (150 hours) I offer a free initial assessment and am available for lessons across the city of Brighton and Hove. I offer one-to-one lessons to improve all language skills (speaking, listening, reading & writing), as well as focused lessons on both pronunciation and grammar. My aim is to make you feel more relaxed with speaking English. Tutoring Approach: Improving Language skills in speaking, listening, reading & writing Learning colloquial language – informal/common language/idioms Add a more personal touch to your teaching experience Specialising in CV, cover letter writing and applying for jobs Help with media subjects: Design/Art/Journalism/Photography Learn about British culture and lifestyle As well as learning the more literary side of English: fiction/non-fiction/poetry But most importantly, the twist! I want to help you create a life and make friends in your new City, we will walk the streets, find places to eat, socialise and use everyday English language! Please provide as much of the following information as possible:

- 1) Age
- 2) Your level in English 3) First Language
- 4) How many weeks or months you want to have lessons for.
- 5) How many hours per week you'd like.
- 6) The days and times when you'd like to have lessons.
- 7) Are you interested in online tuition via Skype? (If you are interested in Skype classes, these are
