The paintwork is light grey with a darker grey two tone random flash effect. Fitted with aluminium racing pedals and straps, (which alone cost nearly £18 to buy). I can fit normal moulded black pedals if required. I have fitted brand new Kenda grey hybrid racing tyres. (These cost £20 to buy). I can fit normal black mountain bike tyres if required. However I will not be making wholesale changes to the bike unless the sale of the bike is assured first. Servicing: I have a workshop as in the pictures. My last pic on the advert shows what a bike shop would charge for just a service (without replacing any parts). Bike has had a 15 point service checklist, before being sold:
